

Training and Lifelong Learning offered by Mandate Trade Union

Mandate Trade Union is committed to offering well-developed, relevant training to our members. This training is a pillar of support which will ensure that activists have the necessary skills, knowledge and competencies needed to carry out their roles within the Union.

Mandate's innovative and modern training courses are strategically designed to offer the following:

- New opportunities for the development of our activists in order that they can participate in an active way in Mandate
- Courses to meet the learning needs of our members and activists at all levels of the Union

In order to achieve these objectives, a comprehensive range of courses are on offer providing progression routes from introductory level to advanced courses leading to FETAC Certification.

Courses on offer include:

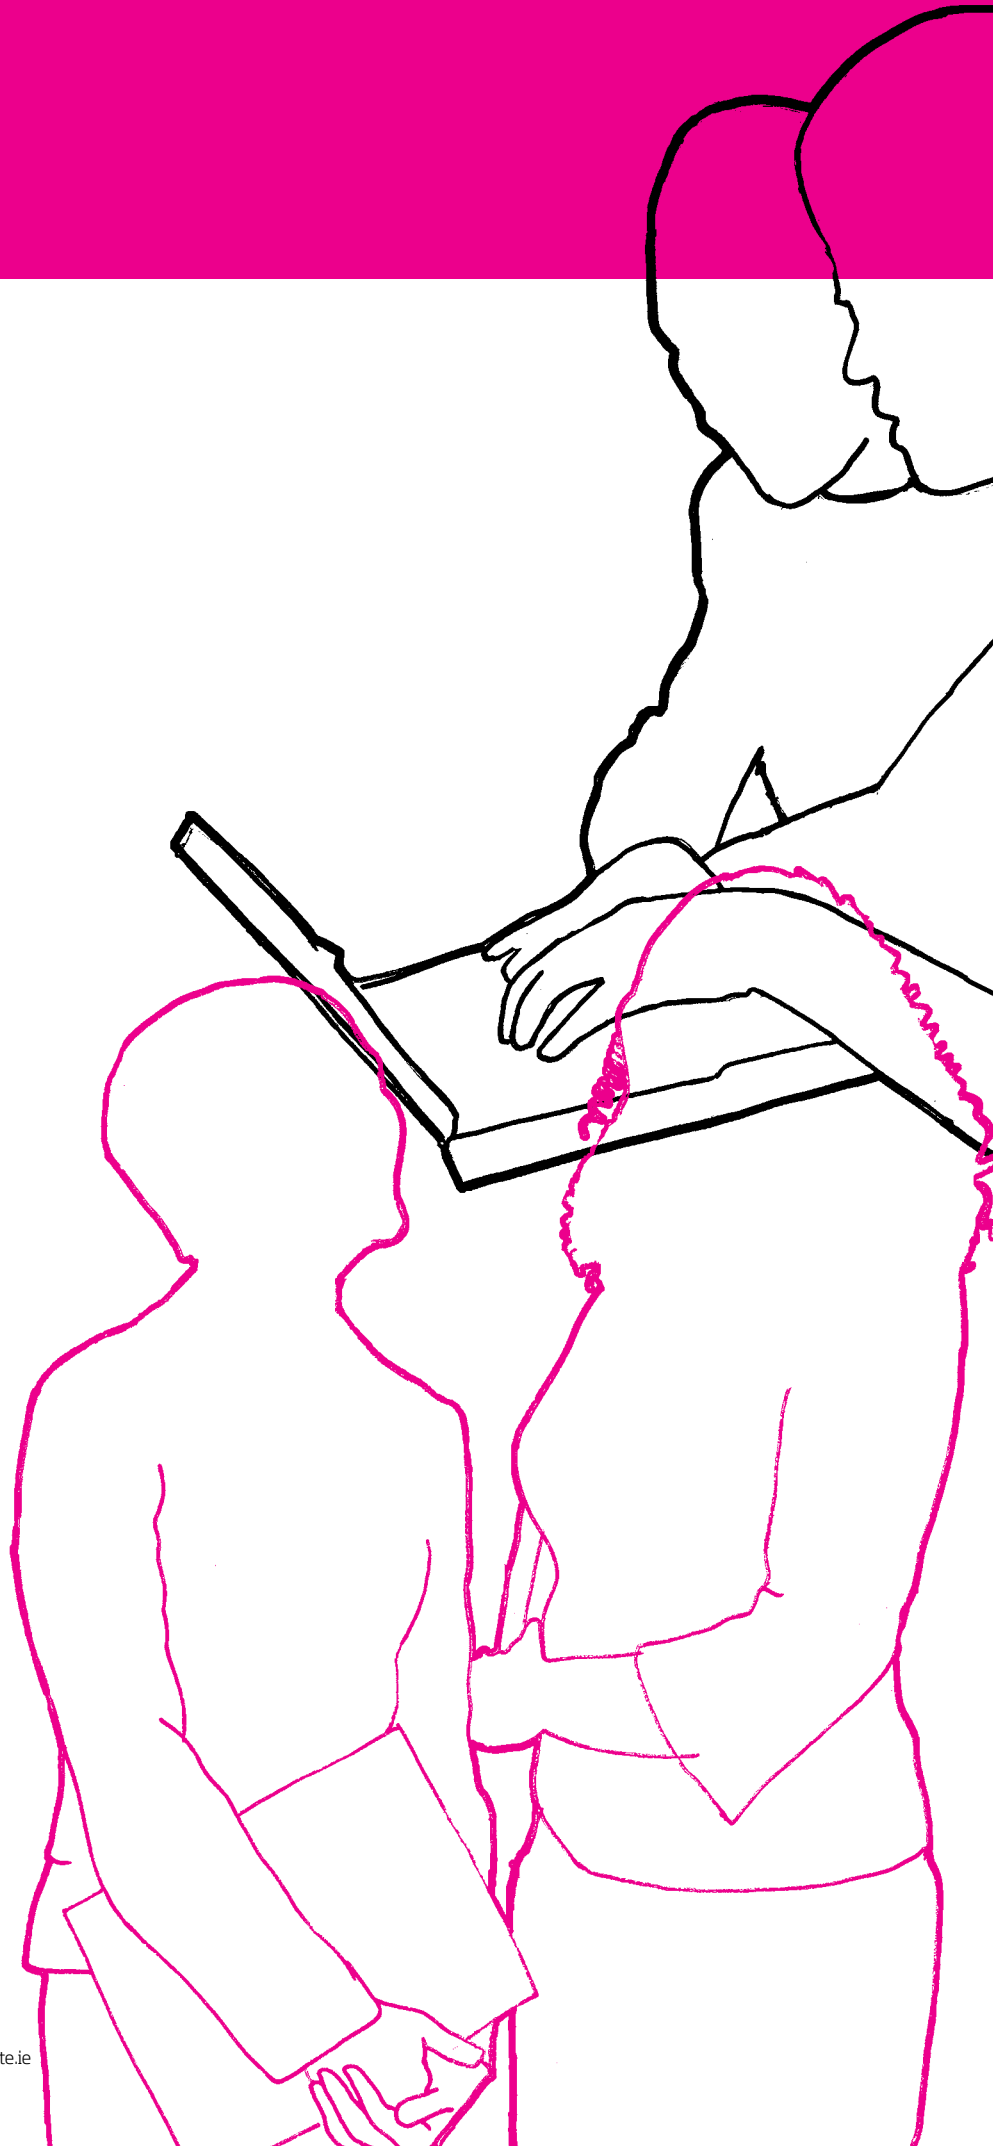

- Union Representative Introductory Course
- Union Representative Advanced Course
- Strategic Targeting and Recruitment
- Basic Computer Training
- Advanced Computer Training
- Health and Safety Training
- Pension Training

This list is not exhaustive and is subject to ongoing change.

Training is delivered in Mandate's purpose built Organising and Training Centre and also at appropriate venues throughout the country.

If you have an interest in attending a Mandate training course contact your local Mandate representative and put your name forward for training.
