

Interested in getting more involved with your Union?

Nominations now open for the role of Shop Steward

The role of the Shop Steward is to:

- To make representations to management on workplace issues e.g. grievance and disciplinary issues
- To become a leader in your workplace, “the go-to person”, a promotor of your Union
- To ensure communication between the Union and its members is strong and maintained
- To be the main link between the members and the Mandate Union Official