

Interested in getting more involved with your Union?

MANDATE
TRADE UNION

Nominations now open for the position of Health & Safety Representative

DESIGNED BY 123FREEDOM.COM

The role of the Health & Safety Representative is to:

- Consult and make representations to the employer on safety, health and welfare matters relating to employees in the place of work.
- Safety Representatives are entitled to carry out inspections and to receive key information from the employer.
- Accompany a Health and Safety Authority inspector carrying out an inspection

All necessary training & support will be provided by Mandate

If interested please text your Name, Store Location and Contact Details to: 0873884178

If you have any queries with regard to this advertisement or would like more information please contact your Shop Steward or Mandate Official